

Online Investing Ingredients for success

OVER 30 PROVIDERS

Platforms & Robos put through their paces

TRENDS ANALYSED

Banks | Engaging women | Ethical | Robo | Thematic

CUSTOMER SPEAK

What 6,000 consumers think, fear, want and like

OUR PREDICTIONS

on growth, customers and Robo Mark 2

DATA, STATS & FACTS

AUA, customers, demographics, behaviours

Online Investing

Ingredients for success

Report authors

Holly Mackay

Founder and CEO

holly@boringmoney.co.uk

Jessica Galletley

Senior Research Analyst

Jessica@boringmoney.co.uk

Michael Akinwotu

Senior Associate

michael@boringmoney.co.uk

Sam Richardson

Data Analyst

samuel@boringmoney.co.uk

Contents

Executive Summary	4
Introduction	6
1 Market Data	8
1.1 Assets under administration (AUA)	9
1.2 AUA split by provider type	10
1.3 Tax wrapper split	11
1.4 Funds vs listed securities	12
1.5 Platform age and gender split	12
2. Consumer Research Overview	14
2.1 Financial situation	15
2.2 Savings and investment product ownership	17
2.3 Confidence in investing	19
2.4 Brand awareness and usage	21
2.5 Channel use and engagement	22
2.6 Attitudes towards investing	24
2.7 Choosing a product and provider	26
3. The Investor Experience – Good and Bad Practice	30
3.1 Platform review	31
3.2 Summary	32
3.3 Step One: Initial research & decision making	34
3.4 Step Two: Onboarding	46
3.5 Step Three: Ongoing customer experience	53
3.6 People like me ...	60
4. Emerging Trends and Sectors	62
4.1 Banks return to advice	63
4.2 Thematic investing	65
4.3 Pension and engagement	67
5. Costs, disclosure and clarity	70
5.1 The regulator’s concerns	71
5.2 Boring Money’s testing and experience	71
5.3 Consumer views on pricing	72
5.4 Industry pricing comparisons	74
5.5 Trends and changes	81
5.6 MiFID II disclosure rules	81
6. On the menu in 2019	84
6.1 Impact investing	85
6.2 Women and investing	88
6.3 Fintech – time for a robo rethink?	91
7. Market Forecast and Predictions	94
7.1 The last decade	95
7.2 Looking forward	95
8. Conclusion	98
Appendix	101

List of figures

Figure 1: Assets and users per provider	9
Figure 2: Asset split by provider type	10
Figure 3: Wrapper split by provider type	11
Figure 4: Assets held by provider type	12
Figure 5: Average customer age by provider type	12
Figure 6: Gender split by provider type	13
Figure 7: Financial priorities	15
Figure 8: Expected change in financial situation	16
Figure 9: Financial adviser use	16
Figure 10: Savings and investment product ownership	17
Figure 11: Amount held across savings and investment products (trimmed average)	18
Figure 12: Type of investments held	18
Figure 13: Confidence in opening savings and investment products	19
Figure 14: Confidence in investing – stocks and shares ISA/Investment account or share trading account	20
Figure 15: Confidence in investing – Personal pension/SIPP	20
Figure 16: Number of providers/platforms used	22
Figure 17: Frequency of checking savings and investments	22
Figure 18: Methods of checking savings and investments	23
Figure 19: Channel preference across investing activities	24
Figure 20: Attitudes towards investing	25
Figure 21: Consideration of taking out an investment product	25
Figure 22: Barriers to investing	26
Figure 23: Important factors when choosing an investment product	27
Figure 24: Important factors when choosing an investment provider	28
Figure 25: Interest in investing innovations	28
Figure 26: Interest in investment marketing messages	29
Figure 27: The six considerations when choosing a provider	34
Figure 28: Investor emotions at different stages of their journey	45
Figure 29: Number of clicks to reach beginning of application	48
Figure 30: Frequency of checking workplace pension	68
Figure 31: Pension dashboard information	69
Figure 32: Investor confidence in calculating charges	72
Figure 33: Awareness and interest in ethical investing	85
Figure 34: Ethics vs. returns – the trade-off	86
Figure 35: Average length of time to hold a fund, by gender	89
Figure 36: Interest in robo advice by age	93
Figure 37: DIY investment assets – to date and forecast	95

List of tables

Table 1: Brand awareness	21
Table 2: Likelihood to invest – consumers	45
Table 3: Mobile app availability	58
Table 4: Call centre availability and answer times	59
Table 5: High-street bank robo propositions	64
Table 6: Pricing scenarios	75
Table 7: Ownership and attitudes towards investing, by gender	88