

Contents

1	Executive Summary .....	10
	Over half of fund investors plan to invest more in sustainable funds.....	10
	Performance is no longer a significant concern.....	10
	...But returns are still a priority when investing sustainably .....	10
	As the sustainable fund universe grows, greenwashing becomes more of a concern.....	10
	Corporate tax avoidance, weapons and animal testing are top of the exclusion hit list .....	11
	Managing client expectations and well-reasoned communications are essential.....	11
	Environmental concerns are a driving factor... ..	11
	But Covid-19 has led to increased consideration for social factors.....	11
2	Tracking changes: then and now .....	12
3	Introduction .....	13
3.1	An introduction to our 2021 report.....	13
3.2	Research sources and methodology .....	13
3.2.1	Consumer research .....	13
3.2.2	Fund investors.....	14
3.2.3	Qualitative research – mock factsheets and investor interviews.....	14
3.2.4	Adviser research.....	14
4	Market backdrop: setting the scene .....	15
4.1	Summary .....	15
4.2	The sustainable funds market reaches record highs each quarter.....	15
4.2.1	The availability of funds is expanding .....	16
4.2.2	Regulation is driving change .....	16
4.3	A nation of conscious consumers .....	17
4.3.1	Shopping habits are changing .....	17
4.3.2	The climate is a top priority .....	17

4.4	Sustainable segments: how have they changed? .....	19
4.5	A spotlight on engaged investors.....	21
5	Investor appetite for sustainable investing .....	23
5.1	Summary .....	23
5.2	Importance of sustainable investment options.....	23
5.3	Current holdings.....	24
5.4	Younger investors report higher proportion of sustainable holdings .....	25
5.5	Investors have been moving more investments to sustainable options .....	26
5.6	Future appetite for sustainable or ethical investments .....	27
5.7	What would make investors more likely to invest sustainably?.....	28
5.8	Segmenting interest by E, S and G .....	30
5.9	Appetite for adviser discussions .....	30
5.10	Adviser experiences and perceived interest.....	31
5.10.1	Advisers believe one in three would value a conversation .....	31
5.10.2	One in five clients have sustainable investments in their portfolio .....	32
6	Motivations and expectations for investing sustainably .....	33
6.1	Summary .....	33
6.2	Motivations for investing this way are a balance of doing good and good returns .....	33
6.3	For younger investors, evidence of impact is more important .....	35
6.4	People still expect to see good growth.....	35
6.5	...But this should be balanced with sustainable impact.....	37
6.6	One in five savers strongly agree that having a positive impact would encourage them to invest	38
7	Building the ideal fund.....	39
7.1	Summary .....	39
7.2	Preferred investment approach.....	39
7.3	Environmental and social issues drive impact considerations .....	41

7.4	Women express a greater interest across most factors .....	42
7.5	Corporate tax avoidance, weapons and animal testing come top of the ‘avoid’ list .....	43
7.6	Lack of confidence among savers leads to higher levels of anxiety .....	44
7.7	Is it okay for sustainable funds to include oil?.....	45
7.8	Switching intentions are strong .....	47
7.9	Brand-specific responses highlight the importance of ‘S’ among investors.....	48
7.10	Younger savers and investors feel more strongly about the likes of BP.....	49
8	Barriers to investing sustainably .....	51
8.1	Summary .....	51
8.2	Investors struggle to identify sustainable funds.....	51
8.3	Jargon and communications as a barrier .....	53
8.4	Greenwashing: Navigating a growing space .....	54
8.5	To what extent is performance still a concern?.....	55
8.5.1	Majority of investors believe sustainable funds could achieve better returns .....	56
8.5.2	Most are unlikely to compare performance with other funds .....	57
9	Design and communications .....	59
9.1	Summary .....	59
9.2	What do investors want? .....	59
9.2.1	Investors want transparency and evidence .....	59
9.2.2	Access to information on sustainable credentials is limited .....	61
9.2.3	Information needed to make decisions .....	62
9.3	Reviewing and designing the ideal fund factsheet .....	62
9.3.1	Investors feel positive about the information that is becoming available .....	62
9.3.2	Designing the ideal factsheet.....	65
9.3.3	What do people want to see? .....	66
9.4	Using the right terminology .....	68

9.4.1	Investors use a variety of terms of describe this investment approach.....	68
9.4.2	Awareness of climate related terms.....	69
9.4.3	Only 31% of investors could explain the meaning of climate change in detail .....	70
9.5	Terminology used by advisers.....	72
9.5.1	Ethical is most likely to be used to explain this approach .....	72
9.5.2	Most advisers would feel confident explaining different terms.....	72
10	Finding and selecting sustainable investments .....	74
10.1	Summary .....	74
10.2	Consumer views.....	74
10.2.1	How do investors currently invest sustainably? .....	74
10.2.2	Investor awareness of fund manager sustainable considerations is low .....	75
10.2.3	HL, Baillie Gifford, and Aviva come top for overall brand consideration .....	76
10.3	Adviser views .....	78
10.3.1	Nearly half come up with their own fund shortlist.....	78
10.3.2	Advisers want research tools and better information.....	78
10.3.3	Majority of advisers stick to two fund managers for investing client money .....	80
10.3.4	Advisers want to see sustainable funds from... ..	81
11	Sustainable pensions – workplace engagement .....	83
11.1	Summary .....	83
11.2	Awareness that workplace pension is invested.....	83
11.3	Awareness of being able to move to a sustainable portfolio .....	84
11.4	Intentions for moving to a sustainable portfolio .....	85
11.5	Considerations when engaging workplace pension holders .....	86
12	Adviser capabilities and challenges .....	88
12.1	Summary .....	88
12.2	Approach.....	88

12.2.1	One in ten clients initiate conversations .....	88
12.2.2	Marked increase in those incorporating it into their regular fact find .....	89
12.3	Interest and attitudes .....	90
12.3.1	The pandemic has led to an increase in interest among clients... ..	90
12.3.2	... but advisers are still sceptical.....	90
12.3.3	Some advisers becoming more sceptical .....	91
12.3.4	Confidence has fallen as rules become more complex.....	92
12.4	Barriers and concerns .....	93
12.4.1	Lack of demand and awareness seen as biggest barrier .....	93
12.4.2	Reputation risks will inhibit adviser uptake .....	93
12.4.3	Advisers think 17% of all sustainable funds could be greenwashed .....	95
12.5	Satisfaction with support available.....	95
12.5.1	Most advisers are satisfied with the support offered by their firm.....	95
12.5.2	Scope for more client materials .....	96
12.5.3	Advisers want to see underlying holdings and sustainability criteria.....	97
13	Conclusion.....	99